

DO NOT ARBITRATE.

Manufacturers Decline Mr. Low's Assistance.
Say that the Strikers Have Caused Too Much Trouble.
and They Will Try to Starve Them Into Submission.

President Seth Low, of Columbia College, as Chairman of the Council of Mediation and Conciliation, has offered his services to bring about a settlement of the cloakmakers' strike, and to this end has written letters to both Henry Hornstein, Secretary of the Cloakmakers' Union, and to Henry Rothchild, Secretary of the Manufacturers' Association.

He requests the co-operation of both sides to bring about an amicable adjustment of the trouble. The strikers have replied that they will be glad to avail themselves of the offer of the council, which has suggested the names of Seth Low, James R. Strong and John M. Bogert, of Typographical Union No. 6, as a Committee of Arbitration.

President Daniel W. Richman, of the Cloak Manufacturers' Association, after an afternoon address a long communication to Mr. Low, in which, on behalf of the Executive Committee of the association, he refuses to accept the council or Mr. Low's assistance.

President Richman stated that the manufacturers were not willing to arbitrate at this time, but that they would be willing to do so in the future.

The places of the cutters and trimmers had been filled, but such difficulty had been experienced in obtaining operators that the manufacturers had been forced to practically suspend business.

Under the circumstances, the manufacturers felt very much aggrieved at their treatment and were not willing to submit to arbitration.

The police are still having difficulty with the strikers, and arrested a number of the women cloakmakers at Grand and Spring streets this morning for disorderly conduct.

They attacked and abused the men who had been hired in their places as they were going to work, and some of the women were very violent. One woman was particularly boisterous, and she attacked Michael Levi and pulled out a handful of his whiskers.

The strikers have pickets posted all along the street, and the number of pickets in what vicinity was increased to four. The strikers won over the non-union men, and the latter were driven from the Grand street shops this morning, and they went out in a body.

Three women who were arrested yesterday were discharged to-day because the complainants against them failed to appear.

There is a great deal of distress among the strikers and their families, and the determination to continue to the bitter end. There is a great deal of sympathy among the strikers, and all the cloak manufacturers are practically idle, and retail dealers are also suffering, which the manufacturers are not able to supply.

The season for making cloaks usually ends about Nov. 25, but if hands could be obtained it would be prolonged until January. The manufacturers are supplying a limited number of high-priced garments, and the work forces of these houses are employed day and night, but they cut very little figure in the trade.

The Manufacturers' Association met at the Metropolitan Hotel last night and resolved to continue the fight until the strikers are starved out.

All the labor unions in this city and vicinity have been appealed to for aid for the starving strikers.

Landlords who promised rents by some of the cloakmakers after the election have not been paid, and many distress notices have been issued for the purpose of starting a factory in Berlin and sending the product of it to his New York house.

LED BY ANARCHISTS.

200 Striking Cloakmakers Mobbed Benjamin Schwartz.
Benjamin Schwartz, of Rockaway avenue, near Eastern Parkway, Brooklyn, was held for trial in Gates Avenue Court this morning charged with assaulting Morris Cohen, of 52 Thattford avenue. Cohen first claimed that he had been shot by Schwartz, but investigation showed that his wounds had been caused by a club. The police say the whole trouble grew out of the cloakmakers' strike, which has pitted Brownsville in a state of insurrection.

Schwartz is an employee of Friedman Brothers, contracting tailors, of Broadway, New York. Yesterday he returned from work at noon. As he was passing up Eastern Parkway, near Thattford avenue, he was set upon by a mob of fully 200 strikers reinforced by the anarchist contingent of Brownsville, under the leadership of Sam Shapiro and Ravenswold, both well known to the police.

CHINESE FLEE AGAIN.

Army of the North Hiding and Suffering in the Mountains.
An Opinion that the War Will Practically End at Port Arthur.

Missionaries from Manchuria Escape to New-Chwang

SHANGHAI, Nov. 9.—The Chinese Army of the North has retreated to the mountains, where the soldiers are reported to be starving and suffering severely from cold and exposure.

The Japanese army is reported to be encamped at Kiao-chow-Chang. The Japanese are harassing some 1,000 Chinese, mostly raw recruits.

Port Arthur is not expected to make a determined stand against the Japanese.

Admiral Sir F. R. Fremantle, in command of the British fleet, considers that Port Arthur will probably be the scene of the last engagement of any importance between the Chinese and Japanese.

LONDON, Nov. 9.—A despatch from Shanghai says that all the missionaries of the Presbyterian Church of Ireland have been working in Manchuria have left the interior and have arrived in safety at New-Chwang.

Another despatch, from Shanghai says that the Japanese have undoubtedly captured Taitien-Wan, a short distance north of Port Arthur.

The Chinese fleet is reported to have arrived at Wei-Hai-Wei.

DR. SMITH IN AFRICA.

News of the American Explorer and His Party Reaches London.

LONDON, Nov. 9.—The first news of the scientific expedition, headed by Dr. Donald Smith, of Philadelphia, which started in June last to explore the unknown region between 200 miles west of Berbera, the chief town of that portion of Africa, and Lake Rudolf, where the ruins of ancient cities are believed to exist, has been received here.

Dr. Smith, shortly after his arrival at Berbera, succeeded in forming a caravan of 100 camels, and accompanied by two Englishmen, early in September reached a large stream believed to be the Ezer.

The expedition was greatly delayed after beginning its march, owing to defects in the transport arrangements.

Dr. Smith and his party explored the unknown country west of Milmi and surveyed several rivers. During the progress of this work, Dr. Smith had a narrow escape from death or serious injury by being charged by a rhinoceros.

The expedition is now being full of interest. All members of the party are in good health.

LORD MAYOR'S DAY.

Smaller Crowd and Less of a Pageant than Usual in London.

LONDON, Nov. 9.—The crowds which witnessed the installation of the new Lord Mayor, Alderman Sir Joseph Reynolds, were far smaller than usual to-day. The decorations were tawdry and the procession was far from comparing with the pageants of some years back.

The day was mild and showery.

The regular Lord Mayor's banquet will take place this evening, and Lord Rosbery, the Premier, will take this occasion to reply to the recent speech of Lord Salisbury, which was a reply to the Premier's utterances at Bradford on Oct. 27.

PEIXOTO MAY LEAD AGAIN.

Report that He Will Take Command to Crush Brazilian Rebels.

RIO DE JANEIRO, Nov. 9.—In the last six weeks the revolutionists in Rio Grande do Sul seem to have been gaining ground.

It is reported a conspiracy exists among the war ships to join the rebels, and the present pretext of quelling the rebellion Peixoto will assume chief command and return to it, putting Moraes in the background.

COPENHAGEN A FREE PORT.

Tonnage Dues Abolished and Port Dues Cut in Denmark.

COPENHAGEN, Nov. 9.—Copenhagen was declared a free port this morning and the tonnage dues of 50 ore per ton were abolished at all Danish ports.

The elaborate programme prepared for the opening of the port was abandoned owing to the death of the King.

The port dues have been reduced 1-2, and have been converted into an impost upon merchandise which is not applicable to goods in transit.

FOR THE DEAD CZAR.

Memorial Services at Washington Attended by the President.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 9.—Profoundly impressive ceremonies were held at the Russian Legation here to-day in memory of Czar Alexander III., whose body is now on route to its place of burial in the imperial tomb.

President Cleveland and the entire cabinet, except Postmaster-General Russell, attended, accompanied by Mrs. Cleveland and the cabinet ladies. The foreign Ambassadors and Ministers, with their extensive suites, wearing black and great mourning, were present in a body.

Ambassador Hays and ex-Secretary of State Foster were also present. As no Greek Church exists in Washington, the services of the Legation were for the time being transformed into a place of worship, with an altar and all appurtenances.

TRADE IN STOCKS IMPROVE.

Prices Range Still Higher and the Shorters Are Routed.

The markets for securities continue to reflect the change of sentiment occasioned by the result of the recent election. There is a broader market for bonds than for months, and holders are inclined to wait for higher prices.

The dealings toward the close were attended with more animation than for some time. There were heavy purchases for both the long and short accounts, and higher prices were recorded. The short-term bonds of the Government and the United States were particularly active.
